- Reports on government efficiency, including "Local Government Efficiency and Size in Illinois: Counting Tax Revenues, Not Governments" by Wendell Cox (2016); "Local Democracy and Townships in the Chicagoland Area," by Wendell Cox, (January 2012).

IX. What Have We Done Well? (List any budget/levy freezes or reductions in the past decade; list new programs or services offered to residents over the past decade; list any ethics ordinances adopted; timely FOIA compliance; responsiveness to public; list any new intergovernmental agreements or social services offered; list any increase in number of township residents served, etc.)

Since 2021, we have successfully saved the township approximately $16,000 a year in various administrative costs (such as regarding utilities).

Prior to 2021, we made structural improvements (roof, windows, insulation) to help reduce heating costs, etc.

Newer services include: notary public services; recycling of used eye glasses, hearing aids and key fob; voter registration.

We have successfully met timely FOIA compliance.

Rutland Township includes the village of Pingree Grove, which has been identified as one of the fastest-growing villages in the state.

X. What Inefficiencies Did We Identify/What Are our Next Steps?
None

XI. What Can We Do Better or More Efficiently?
N/A

XII. Studies on Governmental Efficiencies

In preparing this report, we reviewed several studies on local government efficiency. These studies show that:

- The average local government in Illinois serves 1800 residents compared to the national median of 2850 individuals
- Most townships in Illinois have no bonded indebtedness. Together with road districts they are an integral element of local democracy. Township expenditures have grown at a lower rate than those of any other level of government since 1992.
- Townships have lower labor costs and employ mostly part time employees.

XIII. Our committee's recommendations regarding Increased Accountability and Efficiency: N/A

Note: This Report must be filed with your County no later than 18 months after your first committee meeting.
